

Hunter & Amber

Hi There!

Thank you for taking the time to get to know our family. My name is Amber and my husband is Hunter. We live in Alabama with our two little boys, Ryker who is almost 7 and Huxton who is 3. Our boys have been praying for quite some time for a sweet baby to love and I can assure you that your baby will be loved beyond measure.

As you look over different family profile books we will be praying for you and the decision you are making. We hope that when you look at our book that you get a sense of how loved and cherished your baby will be if you select our family.

We want you to know that whatever your child is passionate about we will be there to support them and cheer them on. Your baby will always have us showing up for their school programs, field trips, luncheons and events. If there is a family tradition that is important to you that you would like for us to incorporate in your babies life, please let us know. We would love to keep the tradition going for your sweet baby.

I know you have a big decision to make but please know that if you decide on our family your child will always know how much you love them and how selfless you were to make the brave decision to place them for adoption. As you'll see in our profile book I love to take pictures and would love to set up communication to send you updates and photos.

Again, thank you for taking the time to get to know our family.

Never forget -- You are strong. You are brave. You are loved.

Hunter and Amber

Our Story

Though we both grew up in Alabama and had several mutual friends we did not meet until our mid 20s. We quickly realized we had a lot in common: a love for Jesus, traveling, fitness and having a great time with friends. Our connection was instant and we started dating a few weeks later.

We were engaged nine months later. Hunter surprised me (Amber) with a trip to the mountains, just the two of us, for New Years Eve. As the ball fell...Hunter dropped to one knee and proposed.

Fast forward to April of 2017, we were married in front of all of our closest family and friends. We've been married for 7 years and love living life together. We cannot wait to bring this baby into our lives and love it unconditionally.

our love for each other

We were married in the church that Hunter's grandparent's attended. The church was small & quaint and only held our closest family and friends. We decided to get married at this church because Hunter's grandparents passed away before our wedding day so we wanted to honor them in a special way.

Family means the world to us

Our Wedding

Why we are adopting

We have two biological children. However, in-between having our first and second child, we suffered three miscarriages. Fertility issues are not the only reason we have chosen to adopt a child. We are Christians, we believe in God and walk in our faith. We kept feeling a tug in our hearts that adoption was for us! Basically, through all that we have been through in our journey for having children, we felt God open our eyes and hearts to the possibility of adoption.

We have always dreamed of having at least 3 children, and would love to expand our family one final time. After praying and discussing with our families, we truly feel like God opened the adoption door for a reason.

We realize the decision you are making is not easy, so we pray that you know with all your heart that our family will love your baby more than imaginable.

Amber is the most beautiful and selfless woman I have ever met. She's not only my wife but my very best friend! She loves our family so well and puts our needs before her own daily. Amber makes life fun and extra special. She goes out of her way to show the kids how very much they are loved. Every birthday and Christmas holiday, she plans how we will surprise them to make each time unique. She volunteers in Ryker's class and takes time out of her busy life to make all the kids feel special with handmade treats or snacks. Amber also hosts gatherings in our home for the neighborhood kids, baseball team, school friends and family. Amber is a true caregiver and the one our kids run to when they need their boo-boos kissed. She is truly so loved and I am so grateful that God blessed my life with the best little mama and wife.

Hunter is the most amazing daddy and husband. He is always ready for an adventure and makes our lives so fun. He's dependable, giving, honest, kind and silly. Hunter adores our children and always makes them a top priority in life. From the moment he walks in the door from work, he's all hands on deck with hugs and ready to play with our kids. The kids squeal when they hear him driving up. Hunter is the designated bath time giver, king of diaper changes and doesn't hesitate to take off for doctors appointments, school or church events. He volunteers to coach Ryker's football and baseball team! Hunter takes the kids hunting and fishing and teaches them about his love for animals and nature. He is our leader, head of the house in Christ and he prays over our family daily. Hunter is truly the backbone of our family and an incredible friend and partner.

Ryker is the most amazing big brother and was born for this leadership role. He migrates to his little brother and cousins and is very protective and watchful. He never meets a stranger and loves to talk. People flock to him not only because he is the cutest little boy but his big personality, humor and charm.

Ryker aka RykRyk loves anything outdoors: fishing, hunting with his daddy, baseball, riding his bike or four wheeler and swimming. Just so you know, Ryker has been praying for a while now about bringing another baby into our home. He blows us away when he talks about it to everyone that will listen and asks... when is this going to happen? He amuses us every single day! We adore and love him, more than we can even say.

Huxton

Huxton is our sweet three-year-old blue eyed, blonde hair little boy who has an infectious smile.

He is also our little daredevil. He loves to climb, jump and play outside. Huxton loves to meet new people, loves animals and is the biggest cuddle bug. He is all boy! Right now, his interests are Spider-Man, monster trucks, fire trucks and police cars. He adores his big brother and loves playing with Ryker. Huxton is very smart and learns quickly. We love this little dude so much and are enjoying watching him grow up and learn new things.

I love my family! My parents are Greg and Tammy, affectionately now known as PoPoP and GiGi. They are loving, kind, fun, involved and supportive. I cherish the memories of my childhood because of the way my parents raised me. They were there for me every second of my life and now they are here for my own children, their grandkids. The words, "I love you" and "I am so proud of you" are said often. My kids love being around them so much and my parents seem to flourish by being grandparents! Watching them love my children the way they loved me and my brother Stephen is a blessing beyond measure. They come to all of Rykers sporting events, both kids school programs and even volunteer at the school for special occasions. My children know they are loved.

My brother's name is Stephen. We are very close in age, only 17 months apart. Stephen and I are very close. He has a beautiful wife - Jessica and two precious baby girls, Olivia and Reagan. I love them all so much! We spend every holiday together, Easter, Thanksgiving and Christmas and share fun and memorable family traditions. We also see each other all during the year for birthday parties and special events. One of our favorite times to be a family besides Christmas is in the summer when we all vacation together at the beach.

We cannot wait to add another little one to our sweet family.

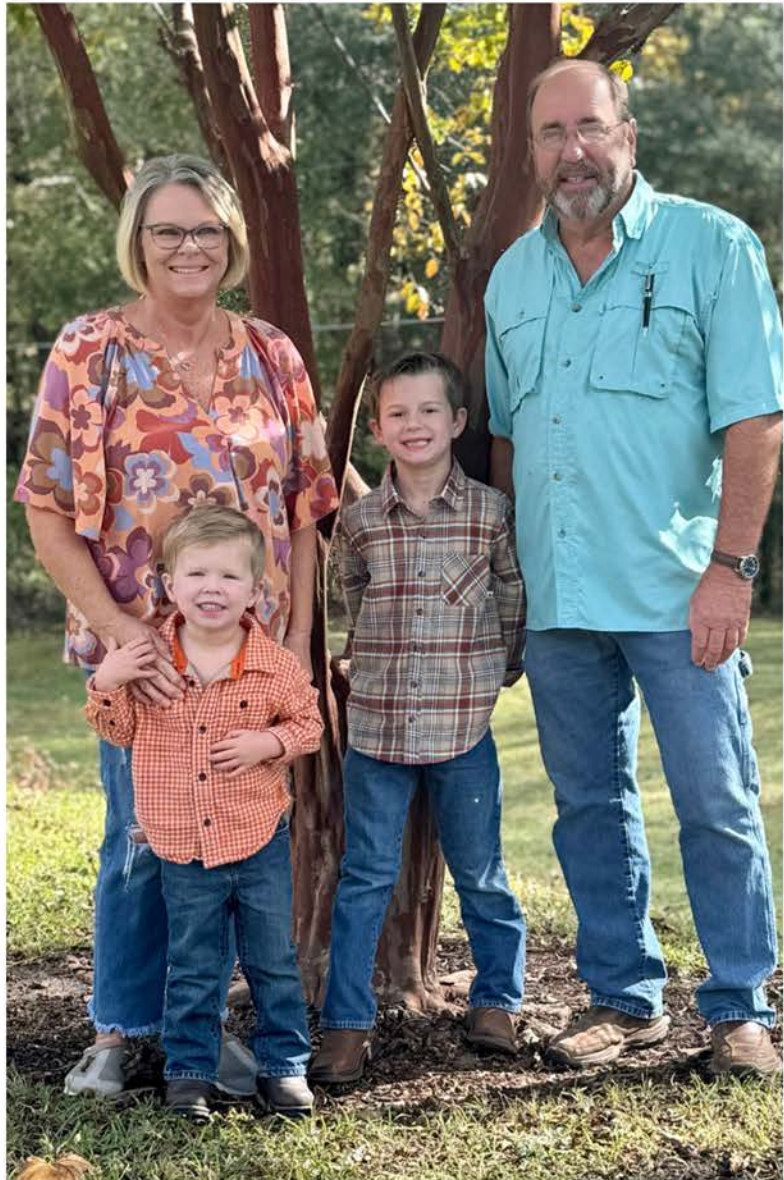

meet our families- Hunter

I come from a great family. My parents are Jerry and Dawn, also known as BBop and DeeDee are extremely supportive and involved in our children's lives. The boys love running into their home and going into their designated toy room and pulling out all the fun things to play with, many items my mom saved from my childhood. They especially love summertime because BBop and DeeDee take them riding in their boat on the lake. They also fish and go camping.

I have two younger brothers, Dillon and Cody. Both uncles are loved by my boys and have nicknames DenDen and CoCo. When we are all together, the boys love the attention from their uncles. Baseball, football, fishing, hunting... these are just a few fun things my kids share with me and the uncles. We are a strong family with good Christian values which are being passed down to our boys. My family is super excited about having another baby added to the family and can't wait!

Holidays & Celebrations

what we love to celebrate each year

Birthdays are a big deal to us and we always celebrate each other whether that be a party, an adventure day or a special trip

Every Christmas Eve our family wears matching Christmas pajamas, we bake Jesus a birthday cake and watch our favorite Christmas movies

In October we enjoy going to the pumpkin patch and painting the pumpkins we picked out. We also host our family and friends on Halloween night so we can all trick or treat together

Easter we love doing a glow in the dark Easter Egg hunt

Our family enjoys celebrating the 4th of July at the lake and watching the firework show together

Home to us is a safe place where we can be ourselves

We live in a very family oriented small town in Alabama. Everyone knows each other and often sees each other at the grocery store, school, sporting events or church. We currently live in a 3 bedroom 2 bath home. The boys enjoy sharing a room so their new baby will get to have their own bedroom. We host many family gatherings for both friends and family. Movie nights, birthday parties, holidays, football tailgates, summer fun in the yard and BBQ's. Everyone is welcome in our home. We make it a priority to know our children's friends and their families.

Our favorite part about our house is the backyard. We sit outside and watch the beautiful sunsets while grilling out, melting marshmallows for smores over our firepit and watching the boys play on their swing set, climbing dome, in the playhouse, throwing balls or riding their four wheelers. Our neighborhood is very safe and we are close to our neighbors. Most all have small kids and together we watch them all closely. There are 15 kids just on our street who ride their bikes up and down the road and stop at each house to play. Our neighbors feel like family.

Our home is very kid friendly. On any given day, if you stop by our home, you might find an array of forts built, obstacle courses, ramps for cars to race from sofa to floor or nerf ammo from our hunting adventures. We don't bother windexing windows until special events because I want the finger prints on the windows while they watch the rain storms come in or if it's too cold to play outside. My kids love the outdoors and I love their tiny finger prints that I see growing and changing way too quickly. In our family, we let our kids be kids because they are only little once and this is their home too! Our motto is, come in and be prepared to laugh, love and have fun! They will be older one day and more orderly. When they are older, they will look back and realize their childhood was everything they imagined it could be and we will know that we did everything to give them a fun, safe, beautiful childhood.
